Nui Markets is a proud supporter of the 2022 Baradene Art Show

You might be wondering what a B2B online trading company has in common with art? Like the mixed strokes of an artist's brush and the colours used, Nui embraces diversity as part of its company culture.

We believe that each team member brings something special and unique to the company. Secondly, Nui considers the trading of agricultural products as an art form – we dedicate our time and energy to providing 'avant-garde' solutions that help companies achieve their sales and procurement goals. Lastly, Nui is as Kiwi as Baradene College.
